

MAPOF Catalog Addenda

Effective June 2017

Catalog Effective Date: June 2017

Change to MAPOF Admissions Requirement

As of June 5, 2017, MAPOF admissions requirements have changed:

The MAPOF Admissions Recommendation Letter requirement is amended to read:

Three letters of recommendation.

The requirement of “one letter from a Processwork Diplomat” has been removed, effective June 5, 2017

Teaching Faculty:

Chris Allen, Ph.D. (Psychology) Union Institute & University; M.S. (Educational Psychology) University of Utah.

Areas of specialization: Personality Psychology; Human Sexuality; Conflict Studies; Educational Leadership.

Annie Blair, M.A. (Process Work) Process Work Institute.

Areas of specialization: Somatic Experiences; Eating Habits; Movement; Creativity

Jan Dworkin, Ph.D. (Clinical Psychology) Union Institute & University; B.A Antioch University.

Areas of specialization: Relationship & Group Work; Conflict Resolution; Human Sexuality.

J.M. Emetchi, M.A. (Process Work) Process Work Institute.

Areas of specialization: Dream Work; Body Symptoms & Non-verbal Processes; Worldwork; Conflict Facilitation; Trauma

Ayako Fujisaki, Ph.D. (Psychology) Saybrook University; M.A. (Psychology) Sophia University

Areas of specialization: Relationship & Group Facilitation; Program Development; Conflict Resolution.

Hellene Gronda, Ph.D. (Cultural Studies) Monash University; M.A. (Process Work) Process Work Institute.

Areas of specialization: Body awareness practices; cultural studies; phenomenology; movement improvisation; evidence-based practice and policy development; research and evaluation.

Susan Kocen, M.A. (Interdisciplinary Studies - Gerontology) Marylhurst University

Areas of specialization: Gerontology; Processing History with Groups and Individuals; Inner Work

Dawn Menken, Ph.D. (Clinical Psychology) Union Institute & University; M.A. Vermont College of Norwich University; B.A. Antioch

Areas of specialization: Group Work; Conflict Facilitation; Relationship; Children & Family Work; Bullying & Violence.

Pierre Morin, Ph.D. (Health Psychology) Union Institute; MD (Medicine), MA (Epidemiology), University of Basel.

Areas of specialization: Altered & Extreme States; Non-verbal Processes; Psychiatric & Medical Issues; Coma Work & Near Death States of Consciousness.

Suzette Payne, M.A. (Process Work) Process Work Institute.

Areas of specialization: Relationship and Worldwork; Conflict Resolution; Trauma; Creativity & Dreams.

Aleksandr Peikrishvili, L.C.S.W., M.S.W. Portland State University.

Areas of specialization: Individual & Group Facilitation; Conflict Facilitation; Diversity & Cultural Competency Training; Relationship Work; Body & Symptom Work; Trauma; Anxiety; Depression; Moods and other Altered States; LGBTQ; Life Changes/Transitions; HIV/AIDS & Other Medical Issues.

Myriam Rahman, M.A. (Process Work) Process Work Institute.

Areas of specialization: Extreme States of Consciousness (experiences often diagnosed as psychiatric disorders); Sex, Love & Relationship Obsessions, Compulsions & Addictions; LGBTQIA; Communities of Color; Individuals in Polyamorous Relationships.

Gary Reiss, L.C.S.W., Ph.D. (Process-oriented Psychology) Union Institute & University; M.S.W. Washington University, St. Louis;

Areas of specialization: Non-verbal Processes & Remote States; Family Therapy; Facilitating Extreme Conflict In & Between Communities & Cultures.

Kas Robinson, Ph.D. (Clinical Psychology) Pacifica Graduate Institute; Dipl. P.W. Australia and New Zealand Society for Process Oriented Psychology.

Areas of specialization: Altered & Extreme States; Non-verbal & Movement Processes; Eating Disorders.

Ingrid Rose, Ph.D. (Clinical Psychology) Pacifica Graduate Institute; M.A. Process Work Institute.

Areas of specialization: Non-verbal Processes; Therapeutic Work with Children & Adolescents; Bullying; Conflict Facilitation; Comparative Systems of Psychological Thought, Clinical Practice; Extreme States; Coma and Palliative Care.

Stephen Schuitevoerder, Ph.D. (Social Ecology) University of Western Sydney.

Areas of specialization: Group and Organizational Change; Worldwork; Two Party Conflict

Salome Schwarz, Ph.D. (Psychology) Union Institute & University.

Areas of specialization: Shamanism; Non-verbal Processes; Roots & Theory of Process Work; Dream Work.

Rhea Shapiro, M.A. (Teaching) University of Massachusetts; M.A. Process Work Institute (Process Work).

Areas of specialization: Relationship & Group Work; Movement & Creative Process.

Jai Tomlin, D.C. Palmer College of Chiropractic; Dipl. P.W. Process Work Institute.

Areas of specialization: Body & Symptom Work; Non-verbal Processes.